

MADE TO CREATE

an activity that explores ideas through the process of drawing, building, designing, and problem-solving

2. YOU CAN BE CONFIDENT
[LIVE FOR GOD | APPLICATION ACTIVITY]

WHAT YOU NEED: Prepared "Confident" Activity Page, prepared toilet paper tubes, level surface, heavy flat objects, decorating supplies

WHAT YOU DO:

- Practice the object lesson ahead of time so that you'll be confident (pun intended) when leading the kids.
- Lead kids to gather around you.
- Set the "God Loves Me" toilet paper tube vertically on a level, smooth surface. Show kids the heavy objects.
- Ask them how many books/items they think the tube can hold—One? Two? Three? More?
- Carefully balance the objects on top of the tube, adding one at a time.
- Emphasize that when we know that God loves us, we can be CONFIDENT to do and try things that seem hard.
- Set out the cards from the "Confident" Activity Page.
 - We can be confident to stand up to bullies.
 - We can be confident to try new things—like tying our shoes.
 - We can be confident to make new friends.
 - We can be confident to make the wise choice even when others aren't!
- Give each kid a paper roll segment.
- Set out the decorating supplies and invite kids to decorate their strips to make bracelets.
- Encourage kids to wear their bracelets as reminders that you can be confident because God loves you.

WHAT YOU SAY:

"When you know that God loves you (read the words on the tube, pointing to each one), you can be CONFIDENT to do things that seem hard: You can be confident to stand up to bullies (show the picture). You can be confident to try new things—like tying your shoes (show the picture). You can be confident to make new friends (show the picture). And you can be confident to make the wise choice (show the picture)—even when others aren't. You can be CONFIDENT because God loves you!

[Make It Personal] (Tell kids about a time when knowing that God loves you helped you be confident, whether it was confidence to be kind to someone, to try something hard, or even to lead a small group!)

"How can YOU be confident because God loves you? (Pause and give kids time to think—there's a lot of brain work happening in the silence! If kids are still stuck for ideas, ask prompting questions: Can you be confident to make a new friend? Can you be confident to listen to your teacher even when others aren't? etc.)

(2. YOU CAN BE CONFIDENT, CONTINUED)

“So, remember that you can be confident because God loves you. In fact, God loves you SO MUCH that He GAVE His one and only Son so that WHOEVER BELIEVES in Him will LIVE FOREVER! It’s okay if you don’t understand everything now. But if you’d like to talk with someone about what it means to believe in Jesus and follow Him, you can talk with me, another leader, your mom or dad, or someone you know who follows Jesus. Just remember that you can be confident because God loves you!”

Note: Depending on what you know about your kids, it might be a good idea to simply “plant the seeds” and have a conversation about salvation, without explicitly leading kids to take a step of faith. If a child’s parents are already believers, they may want to be present for the moment their child accepts Jesus. Use your judgment and your knowledge of your kids’ home lives when having this conversation.

Stand up

Try new

Make new
